

The centrality and supremacy of Jesus

MATTHEW 4:11- 22

The centrality and supremacy of Jesus is seen in the devil's attempt to capture him and take him away from the Father's plan

MATTHEW 4:11

Then the devil left him, and angels came and attended him

The centrality and supremacy of Jesus is seen in fulfillment of the promises of the Covenant

MATTHEW 4: 14 -16

To fulfill what was said through the prophet Isaiah:

*¹⁵ “Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan,
Galilee of the gentiles—*

¹⁶ the people living in darkness have seen a great light; on those living in the land of the shadow of death, a light has dawned.”[[]

The centrality and supremacy of Jesus is seen in his ushering in the kingdom of heaven

MATTHEW 4:17.
From that time on Jesus began to preach, “repent, for the kingdom of heaven has come near.”

The centrality and supremacy of Jesus
is seen in his call to follow him

MATTHEW 4:19, 20

*“Come, follow me,” Jesus said,
“and I will send you out to fish for people.”
At once they left their nets and followed him.*
